Punahou Sends McKinley Team Out of League Race

Coach Midkiff's Team Shows Punahou Spirit and Walks All Over High School Squad in Third Period—Clifford Melim Makes Long Run of Day By Picking Up Fumble and Making Close to 100 Yards on Play—Punahou Outclasses McKinley in All Departments

PUNAHOU 14, MCKINLEY 6. McKinley was eliminated from the race for the championship on the gridiron yesterday afternoon on Alexander field when they lost their second game to the Punahou aggregation. There can be no alibi for the defeat as Punahou clearly outclassed the high school team in every department of the game. It is true that McKinley displayed a few attacks that were good for gains, but notwithstanding the fact that they were leading at the end of the second quarter, Punahou had the edge throughout.

The feature run of the day scored six points for McKinley. Clifford Melim recovered a fumble when Punahou had the ball on the high school eight-yard line, and dancing away from the line back down the field with the entire Punahou team behind him. They were still behind him when he crossed the goal line and the McKinley stands cheered the fast back to the echo.

Like a Sieve. McKinley had a line yesterday that resembled a sieve on many occasions. When Napthaa played the shift run through tackle and through the guards the McKinley forwards left enough room to drive a horse and wagon through. The McKinley line played the poorest football of the year. The Punahou forwards would come charging through, and the back field could not get started. Andrade, the fast end of the high school who was injured in the last game, could not play and Bent was sent in at the flank position.

McKinley showed that the game with Kam took something away from them as they failed to show the speed and attack in the game yesterday. That mysterious thing called "spirit" was present yesterday and Punahou spirit was sticking out in large globes all around. After McKinley had secured a lead in the first half of the game Coach Midkiff said a number of things to the team. Some of the things were not selected from his praise dictionary and when the Punahou team went out on the field in the third quarter they played real football. C. Melim and Napthaa star.

McKinley did not have many stars in the game yesterday. Clifford Melim was always good for a gain but his captain played him on too many occasions when he might have been saved for a play that counted. Sam Carter was not given the ball to carry, which causes one to wonder why a fullback should be sent into the game without a chance to run with the ball. Had Carter and Hawkins been given more chances McKinley might have had a better chance to win, if that were possible. Clifford Melim, may it be said, was the one who dyed in the wool star for McKinley, but was used much too often. For Punahou Napthaa was the big star on the offense. He plunged through the line time and again, and made more gains than Correa, who also was one of the forces on attack for Punahou. In the line Gifford was a star, as time and again he broke through the opposing defense and got the man. Stevens, who was sent in when Pratt was injured, played a bang up game from start to finish. He was always among those present when the ball was down.

Punahou's victory gives them a chance for the championship and the game with Kamehameha Saturday should be one of the best of the year. The crowd yesterday was fair for a week day while Punahou had one of the best rooting sections seen this year.

Play by Play. Kaubane kicked off to Clifford Melim at 3:38. Melim ran the ball back 10 yards. C. Melim hit the left side of the line for two yards. He hit left tackle for a gain of four yards. He was sent through again for a loss, and on his fourth attempt made five yards on a cross buck. Hawkins failed to gain. C. Melim was stopped on a delayed pass play. Hawkins made five yards. H. Melim hurried a forward pass, but Correa caught it and then punted 20 yards. Carter recovered the ball after a fumble. C. Melim made four yards in two bucks. Hawkins failed to make first down.

HAWAII DEFEATS KAM IN BANNER FOOTBALL GAME

College of Hawaii changed their tactics of last Saturday and marched down the field against the Kam team yesterday afternoon to victory by a score of 20 to 16. They did not win easily. From first to last the Kam players gave one of the best exhibitions of football they have displayed this year, but Dr. Peden loosened a number of trick plays, and had the Kam boys stricken at times by the plays used.

In the first period Spencer went over the line for a touchdown after Braah had run back a kick. In the second period Stafford Austin grabbed the ball and ran 40 yards for a touchdown. Kam kicked a goal from the field. Starratt picked up a fumble on the 10-yard line in the third period and scored a touchdown. Godfrey Bertelmann also broke into the line, light by scoring in this period. In the last period Kam outplayed Hawaii, and G. Bertelmann went over the line for a score, which was the last of the day.

The feature play of the day was the forward pass, Braah to Lee. The Hawaii end, who was a star throughout, ran far down the field and turning in time, grabbed the ball for a gain of 50 yards. It was one of the best plays ever witnessed on a local gridiron. The Hawaii backfield showed great improvement over their work of last Saturday, while the Kam players displayed enough good football to cause Midkiff and his team worry when they meet on Saturday. Capt. Booth used a number of substitutes and this feature is bound to make a good showing in the game against the Punahou team. Hawaii has now defeated every team in the league, and looks like the best team on the gridiron today.

The line-up:

INTERMEDIATES WILL PLAY BASKET-BALL ON SATURDAY EVENING

Saturday night the third basket-ball game of the series will be played between the El Globos and Get Ready's; and also the Double X Club will play the Knights of Kamehameha. The Get Ready Club will have to play a hard and fast game to hold down the El Globos, as they have won all the games played by them so far. A. Serro and Felix Rodriguez seem to be the most dangerous men on the El Globe team and no doubt the Get Ready team will have them covered by two of their best men to keep them from scoring. The game should be a fast one as the boys have been working out on the floor most every evening of the week and should be in form for the game.

The Double X team surprised the other teams last Saturday night by holding the El Globos down to a score of 7 to 4, and this Saturday not only look for them to hold down the scoring of the Knights of Kamehameha, but to make a good score besides. The Knights have not been out training for the game, thinking that they are good enough without practice. However, last Saturday's game against the Washington team should have convinced them that they needed team work and practice at basket throwing. The games start at 7:30 sharp. There are no admission charges and anyone desiring to see the games is welcome.

Arthur W. Kraineder, Charles M. Heald, Charles B. Hill and John F. Malone were elected city commissioners of Buffalo, N. Y., under the commission form of government, in effect, January first. Of the four candidates two are republicans and two democrats.

THE ELI BOSS

The shifting of Capt. Aleck Wilson of the Yale eleven to a halfback position, relieving him of the responsibilities of quarterback, a position for which he never was fitted, gave him the opportunity to do the fine work in the halfback position of which he is capable.

Wilson will lead the Yale team against the Harvard eleven on Saturday in the struggle at the Cambridge stadium, and local alumni believe that the great showing made by the Eli in the Princeton game will give Coach Hinkley or Shewlin (take your choice) a heap of confidence when they meet Harpington's warriors this week. Wilson has been the big star for the Eli since Legore was ousted, and Honolulu Yale alumni are confident that Capt. Aleck will be a big factor in the game of the year.

Travelers Will Meet 1st Inf. Team Saturday

The Chinese Travelers will celebrate their home-coming by scheduling their first game with the 1st Infantry team on Saturday at Athletic park. Arrangements were completed last night for the game and the boys have been working out every day for this match. The Travelers are the best drawing card in the city at present and with the interest shown in their work on the mainland there is bound to be a banner crowd at the game.

The 1st Infantry will send about the same team into the field that downed Chicago when the Maroons were here and the line-up should be one that will attract the fans. Captain Lai of the Travelers will have two of the most popular players in the city to take the place of the men left on the mainland. En Sue, the fast center-fielder, and Kan Yen, a catcher that has been starring in the Oahu league games, will be behind the bat. The players have been working on the local diamond and declare that they will be ready to take the game from the Schofield boys, while the 1st Infantry will send a bunch of rooters who are willing to back the soldiers against the fast Travelers.

This will be the first opportunity the fans of the city have had of watching the Travelers for nearly a year and when the game is called at 3 o'clock there should be a large crowd present. The line-up of the Travelers as announced for the game will be: Kan Yen, C. Kekoa, P. Kuali, Ib, C. Moriama, B. Lal, B. Ayau, S. Yamashiro, H. En Sue, C. Aylett, H. T. Moriama will be reserve pitcher. The admission price of the game will be the same as at Oahu league contests.

YALE BOARD APPOINTS COMMITTEE ON RULES

Following the recent disqualification of five Yale athletes for playing summer baseball, the Yale Athletic association appointed a committee to confer with committees from Harvard and Princeton relative to a general revision of the eligibility rules of the three universities. The joint committee will meet after the Yale-Harvard football game. This precludes the possibility of Le Gore, the Yale football star, playing against Harvard.

YOUNG AHEARN SIGNS FOR BURNS TOURNEY

Young Ahearn has signed with Promoters Tortorich and Burns of New Orleans to meet any opponent they may select for him as one of the features of a championship tournament that will be held in January. Young Ahearn is not particular who he may be asked to fight so long as his opponent guarantees to make 155 pounds ringside.

NATIONALS WILL MEET P. B. C. IN MATCH TONIGHT

Remaining Games of Y. M. C. A. Bowling League.
Tonight—Nationals vs. P. B. C.
Monday—Service vs. Honolulu.
Wednesday—Colts vs. Nationals.

The first round of the Y. M. C. A. bowling league is fast drawing to a close and a hard fight is on for first place. The Honolulu have the edge with a lead of one game, but have to face the crack Service outfit next Monday. The Colts are one game behind the Service and have opponents who are not as strong as the leaders when they bowl the Nationals for the closing match of the round next Wednesday.

This evening the P. B. C. and Nationals will bowl the league match. Both teams have had considerable hard luck this season and are anxious to win tonight to better their standing in the percentage table. The P. B. C. have been handicapped by the illness of Bell, one of last season's stars, who has only been able to roll one match this season, and left for the coast on the Matsuya yesterday. Abel Rodriguez and J. R. Santos are being developed to fill his place and either man is liable to be a strong bowler before the season ends.

Captain Canario has worked on his lineup until the Nationals have quite a strong team. A. T. Young has proved a standby and Sgt. F. J. Smith is making good. The addition of Carl Wikander with the improvement of Ackerman, Dorre and Lieut. Van Deusen has put the Nationals on the map.

A call has been sent out for the bowling committee to meet tomorrow afternoon at 5 o'clock to plan ways and means of selecting the Honolulu team for the California state Y. M. C. A. bowling. Several ideas have been discussed and the one that gives the 12 places on the big team to the 12 men who have highest averages in the first round ending Wednesday is perhaps the most popular one.

FROM SAWDUST RING TO MOVING PICTURES GOES JESS WILLARD

There is a law extant in these United States of America whereby the Interstate Commerce Commission has declared that it is unlawful for pictures of prize fights to be transported from one state into another and for any violation of this law there are prescribed dire and drastic penalties. As a consequence there is a big alert demand for motion pictures of prize fights, for the reason that there is no "hot office" after said pictures are made. However, there is no maner by which the I. C. C. can prohibit a prize fighter from becoming a foot-light favorite and making a flying leap for the crown laid aside by the late Sir Henry Irving. Therefore, Jess Willard is now a candidate for the heavyweight "championship" in the world of the stage. Jess is a real actor—at least he draws a salary for making motions before a camera, and his first upturn will be shown in Honolulu today and again tomorrow at the Hawaii theater.

"The Heart Punch" is the nifty title that has been tacked on to Jess's screen-primeur, and it is heralded as a "drama of the prize ring." Naturally Jess will be the "white haired boy" in this new field of endeavor. Whether he will ever aspire to become a "matinee idol" none can tell. Nevertheless, the conqueror of the huge Jack Johnson will disport himself on the screen for the edification of Honolulu at the matinee this afternoon and two performances tonight and also at another pair tomorrow night.

BURNS AGREES TO MEET BANTAM KID WILLIAMS

Frankie Burns of Jersey City has agreed to meet Kid Williams of Baltimore, the bantamweight champion, in a 20-round bout for the world's bantamweight title in New Orleans November 29. Williams already has signed for the fight.

BRITISH CIRCULARS SENT TO MEN OF MILITARY AGE

LONDON, Eng.—Field Marshal Earl Kitchener, the secretary of war, received one of Lord Derby's invitations which are being largely circulated to men of military age to join the army. This amazing blunder was disclosed by Lord Derby himself who, while addressing a meeting of middle-aged recruits, said nobody should be surprised if they received an invitation, as one had actually been sent to the minister of war.

CONTENDERS FOR FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP

Pittsburg—Glenn Warner coach.
Washington—Gilmour Dobie coach.
Cornell—Al Sharpe coach.
Illinois—Robert Zuppke coach.
Wash. State—R. Dietz coach.
Minnesota—Dr. H. L. Williams coach.

When the games of Saturday have been played football will be practically at an end on the mainland. But few games are scheduled for later in the year, the Cornell-Pennsylvania and Pittsburg-Penn State games on Thanksgiving Day and the Army and Navy game on the following Saturday will wind up the year, and once again the season will end with no decisive victory to decide the championship. In the east Pittsburg and Cornell appear to be the class by a big margin, but these two teams will not meet this year to decide the championship of that section. Both teams have games scheduled, but it is not thought that either will be forced to bow to defeat on Turkey Day.

The situation in the West is about the same. Illinois and Minnesota met early in the year and a tie game was the result. Both teams appear to be the best in the Western Conference, and the title in the West will remain unsettled. The same is true on the Pacific Coast. Dobie and his Washington team has not been defeated, while Washington State has a clean slate, and inasmuch as they downed the Oregon Aggies by a big score, and Cornell's team swamped the Michigan Aggies, one of the greatest teams in the West, it is safe to say that the fans in Seattle and Pullman have a perfect right to claim any championship that might be hovering around. It is regretted that these six teams have not an opportunity to fight it out for the championship, as comparative scores are often misleading. If the Oregon Aggies should defeat the heavy Syracuse team, which by the way is one of the best in the country, when they meet on December 1, then the football fans of the Northwest may have good cause to claim a championship.

Glen Warner Is Idolized At Pitt

Glen Warner seems to have pleased all made out their last wills and testaments and named their wall bearers.

When Warner took charge of the squad this fall it was whispered around among the youths that he was a very stern taskmaster; that he was in the habit of busting the skulls of those whose acts didn't please him, and that, in anger, he would saw the legs off a man who didn't run fast enough to satisfy him, or fracture the arms of those who fumbled punts. In other words, when Warner arrived at the Pittsburg camp, the candies all made out their last wills and testaments and named their wall bearers.

But Warner right now is the idol of Pittsburg, a man respected and even loved by his charges, because he has shown himself to be a real human being, and not a slave-driver as he had been pictured.

He is generous, patient and even long suffering. He has given each candidate every chance to "make good"; he has made harmony the keynote of play at Pittsburg.

POOR ELI

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 6.—A neat field goal from the twenty-second yard line by Captain Andrews in the third quarter gave Brown his second victory over Yale in 22 years today, the score being 3 to 0. It was the third successive defeat and the fourth this season for Yale.

Brown assumed the offensive for the greater part of the contest, but Yale presented a stiff defense at critical junctures.

Yale started off with a rush, making 60 yards by line plunges on a variation of the "Minnesota shift." When near the goal line, however, the attack faltered, and Yale surrendered the ball on downs on the six-yard line. That was the only time Brown's goal was threatened.

Yale's defense showed considerable improvement over previous games, especially in diagnosing the forward pass.

BARRETT STARS

ANN ARBOR, Mich., Nov. 6.—Barrett's great open-field running and ability to crash through Michigan's line at opportune moments was an important factor in the 34 to 7 victory which the football eleven of Cornell scored over Michigan her today.

and the title in the West will remain unsettled. The same is true on the Pacific Coast. Dobie and his Washington team has not been defeated, while Washington State has a clean slate, and inasmuch as they downed the Oregon Aggies by a big score, and Cornell's team swamped the Michigan Aggies, one of the greatest teams in the West, it is safe to say that the fans in Seattle and Pullman have a perfect right to claim any championship that might be hovering around. It is regretted that these six teams have not an opportunity to fight it out for the championship, as comparative scores are often misleading. If the Oregon Aggies should defeat the heavy Syracuse team, which by the way is one of the best in the country, when they meet on December 1, then the football fans of the Northwest may have good cause to claim a championship.

Great Teams on Coast. It is certain that the great machine that Dobie has developed would swamp the Yale eleven or defeat Harvard this year. Anyone who has watched the two styles of play will say that the type of football in the Northwest is fully up to the standard of that of the East. It would be interesting to note the effect of a game between Washington and Cornell or Washington and Illinois. The team from the coast would not be a weak sister despite the talk in the eastern press that the East must be supreme.

On Saturday the reconstructed Yale eleven will journey to the stadium to fight it out with the Harvard squad. Although this game is in, so far, a championship one, there is always the rivalry between the two teams, and the crowd is certain to be a record breaker for the Harvard field. More than 50,000 requests have been received for seats, and it is certain that thousands will have to remain away from the struggle between the two New England eleven. Notwithstanding Yale's improvement, Harvard should be the favorite when they march out on the gridiron on Saturday.

Illinois Should Win. Illinois with her two stars back in the game should win from Chicago, and Minnesota is hoped to win over the badgers at Madison. Wisconsin has strengthened the team during the past three weeks and should put up a game fight against the Gophers. Syracuse, with one of the best lines in the East, should win from the boys from Hanover, as Dartmouth has not displayed the usual speed this year.

On the Pacific Coast the struggle will be between the two Oregon teams with the odds in favor of Doc Stewart's men. Oregon is uncertain. They play better football against the Aggies than any other team, and Bersek may spring a surprise on the conquerors of the Michigan Aggies. Notwithstanding the fighting spirit of the Eugene team, the Aggies look like the best bet at present.

NOTRE DAME BEATS ARMY

WEST POINT, N. Y., Nov. 6.—The Army lost to Notre Dame today 7 to 0, in a well played and hard fought game. The Army showed a weak offense and none of the cadet backs could gain consistently through the Notre Dame line, except Oliphant, who played his usual star game. The Army forwards were outplayed most of the time and its winnings were woefully weak. Three times Notre Dame asayed to kick field goals, but failed.
